President's Message

Iris Blooming and Other Happy Things.

Isn't May a wonderful month. It's beginning to warm up, my blue iris are blooming, and birds are building their nests.

Haven't our guild meeting programs and workshops been great? For the next two months we will have opportunities to learn new techniques.

The workshops have been offered to non-guild members and I am expecting a large visitor count at the May and June meetings. For May, the Ann Loveless workshop is full but much can be learned and enjoyed from her presentation. In June, Debbie Jones is our weeklong artist-in-residence. There are spots available in her classes and there are 5 classes to choose, beginning with Silk Bowls that will occur during the day of June 11th before the Guild meeting that night.

With the quilt show coming up, fun workshops and needing members to handle taking the quilt out for donations, there are plenty of opportunities to get involved in the guild. Getting involved in guild activities is the best way to meet other guild members. I have seen that this is true of other guilds.

Lastly, I need to express my gratitude for everyone being so attentive during the guild meetings. This is a great help to get through the guild business so that we can get to the program, which is why everyone came to the meeting (after visiting, of course).

Anytime you would like to be put on the meeting agenda, just let me know at denisemackan@gmail.com.

Bee News

Happy Scrappers are working on an assortment of projects: embroidery, cross-stitch, wool applique, bindings, etc.

The Wednesday Bee is participating in a "Pizza Box" exchange. Each participant chooses focus fabrics and places them in a box along with any other fabrics to be included, or extra instructions. Each box is then passed around the group during the year, and each month whomever has your box, completes a block for your quilt. The fourth Wed. of the month, the new blocks are revealed.

Quilt in Peace Bee turned in 15 care quilts for distribution. Some were made from the strip piecing race at the Winter Retreat, others were made from donated blocks, and some were original designs by bee members.

We mourned the death of one of our bee members, Darlene Morris, and 13 of us attended the funeral service.

The Appliqué and More Bee meets on the first and third Monday of each month at 1:00 PM. The meeting is held at the new Arts Council which is on Highway 6 just south of Barron Road on the west side of the highway. We will meet on Monday, April 15

Donation Quilt

Our donation quilt is not getting out to collect donation tickets. I think that Washington on the Brazos was the last event for the quilt. We want to hang it at the May and June Guild meetings.

Members are needed to sit with the quilt at these two meetings.

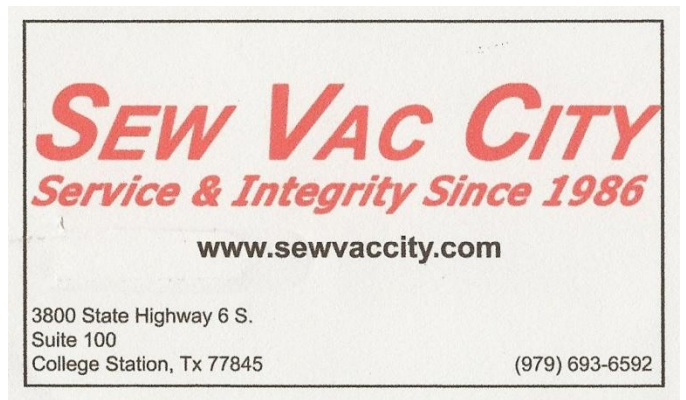

Also, Stephanie has scheduled the quilt to be at the Woodland's Guild May 1 at 6PM. We need you to let Stephanie know if you can take the quilt to the Woodland's Guild.

There is also a need volunteers to sign up members to take the quilt to events and guild meetings for the July to September months and the October to December months. If you have ideas for other events in the area that the quilt can be setup to sell tickets, please give your suggestions denisemackan@gmail.com or contact Stephanie Modrall at 432-230-0969.
